DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rosenberg et al (Rosenberg).

Rosenberg's apparatus for scaling numbers first determines if the floating point number is denormalized or not (i.e. a format determination) followed by scaling as a function of the determined format, note the abstract.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 15-18, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The last three lines of claim 15 are mis-descriptive because the control module does not provide the running sum to the running sum unit and the running product to the scaling unit.

Claim 24, line 5; the phrase "each of" lacks meaning because only one floating point operand has been defined. Claim 25, line 5; the phrase "for determining" appears in duplicate.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 15-18 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Specification

5. Throughout the specification Serial Nos. and filing dates are lacking.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
